

Job Description

Intern- India Animals in Farming

We are World Animal Protection.

We end the needless suffering of animals.

We influence decision makers to put animals on the global agenda.

We help the world see how important animals are to all of us.

We inspire people to change animals' lives for the better.

We move the world to protect animals.

World Animal Protection is a truly global organisation, working in over 50 countries across the world, with offices in every continent. Our vision is a world where animal welfare matters and animal cruelty has ended. We protect animals because we believe a sustainable future for the planet can only be achieved if both animals and people are part of the solution.

Job Title: Intern– Animals in Farming India

Location: New Delhi, India

Reports to: Senior Campaign Officer – Animals in Farming

Duration: 3 months

Main Purpose of the role

The purpose of the role is to provide support to Senior Campaign Officer, in research, analysis, planning and delivery of the India - Antimicrobial Resistance related work and aligned functions in the campaign Animals in Farming.

Duties and Responsibilities

Functional

- Data collection, Research and Analysis of primary and secondary data
- Ensure regular update about AMR proceedings in the country to support ongoing work
- Coordinate and participate in AMR related work in Animals in Farming campaign
- Support in developing new ideas, strategies necessary for achieving project objectives
- Communicate developments of the campaign to the Senior Campaign Officer by maintaining records in form of reports, prescribed templates, written communication etc.

- Support Senior Campaign Officer in mobilising support for the campaigns including public, and other stakeholders.

Organisational responsibilities

- Work cooperatively with external organisations (if required), teams within World Animal Protection and in the wider animal welfare movement to pursue programme objectives and wider organisational goals, including those relating to brand, communications, fundraising and resource management.
- Actively participate in building our brand and maintain the integrity of our brand to support our profile and engagement.
- Actively participate and support the organisation to ensure that we manage our resources (financial, staff and IT) efficiently and effectively by improvement of systems, reporting and compliance.
- Contribute to a learning culture and create a positive working environment for staff.
- Take responsibility for their own health, safety and welfare, comply with H&S policy and procedures, and not act in any way that compromises the safety of themselves, colleagues or the public.

Skills and Experience

Essential

- Good understanding and experience of working in a team
- Experience in successful research (primary and secondary) projects
- Ability to take charge and make decisions if needed
- Good knowledge and understanding of animal welfare issues in India
- Ability to be part of multi-disciplinary teams and build strong constructive relationships with other departments at all levels
- Experience working in a multi-cultural environment
- Good network with people working in research institutions
- Graduate in Microbiology/Biotechnology/ Biochemistry/Veterinary field.

Desirable

- Good understanding of Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR) and its interlinkages to people, animals and environment
- Good knowledge on bio-chemical testings procedures
- Pursuing/completed Post Graduate Degree in Microbiology/Biotechnology/ Biochemistry/Veterinary field.
- A passion for animal welfare
- Experience in delivering research based projects

Last reviewed/updated: 01 February 2022

Contact: HarshaDoriya@worldanimalprotection.org.in